

Executive Proclamation

Office Of The Governor

WHEREAS, Nerl and Rose Ballweg began the celebration of life together as husband and wife in Nineteen Hundred and Thirty-Seven; and,

WHEREAS, Nerl and Rose are parents of nine children, and grandparents to 13 grandchildren and six great grandchildren; and,

WHEREAS, Their marriage has spanned half a century of service and devotion to their family, friends and neighbors; and,

WHEREAS, Nerl retired from the National Federation of Small Businesses and Rose retired from her 25 years as a veteran bartender; and,

WHEREAS, Through their lifelong dedication to the values of caring and sharing, Nerl and Rose have helped make South Dakota a great place to live and work; and,

WHEREAS, On March 31 in Marion, South Dakota, there will be an occasion of great joy and celebration as friends and loved ones honor Nerl and Rose; and,

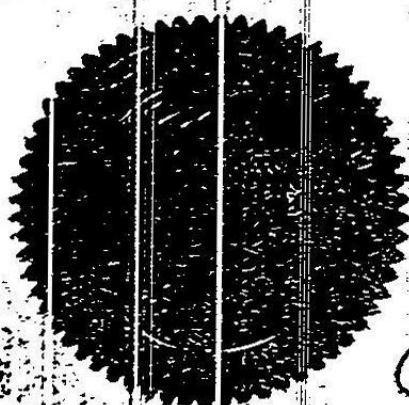

WHEREAS, It is altogether fitting and proper that the Governor of South Dakota recognize and commemorate the memorable milestones in the lives of the State's outstanding citizens:

NOW, THEREFORE, I, GEORGE S. MICKELSON, Governor of the State of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim March 31, 1987, as in South Dakota, and I join with the honored couple's family and friends in wishing them continued health and happiness in a state that stands prouder today because of their contributions and commitment.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Governor's Seal of the State of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this Seventeenth Day of March, in the Year of Our Lord, Nineteen Hundred and Eighty-Seven
